New Library Website

The library website has been redesigned to ensure easier access for students, faculty, and staff. The new homepage features a clean, simple interface that gives its users access to all of the library's resources right on the front page. Below are a few of the new features of the updated website:

Search Bar
Easily search resources including databases and catalog for articles, books, journals, or everything at once. You can specify if you're looking for full-text, peer-reviewed, or catalog only materials to narrow down your search.

Research Databases
Browse databases from A to Z for resources on any subject. If you know the name of the database you want, simply click the letter tab at the top of the page. If not, you can browse the databases by subject. This page provides easy access to a research librarian should you require further assistance.

E-Books

Special thanks to Limestone student Camrey Clark for her photos of the library!
All Limestone College students can use the Library’s Ask A Librarian service 24/7. Browse our frequently asked questions and answers at any time. If your question has not been answered, just type it in to the Ask Us section and send.

New Library Staff
The library is excited to welcome our new Information Literacy Librarian, Karen Caputo. Karen received her B.A. in English from Ohio State University and her M.L.I.S. from Kent State University. Before coming to Limestone, she worked as a librarian at Franklin University in Columbus, Ohio. Karen is available to assist with library research both in-person and online, as well as provide reference and archival services.

Library Material Requests
We believe the library collection should be current and should meet the needs of Limestone students. Students are encouraged to request materials they believe would improve the library’s collections. Submit requests to Steve Smith at ssmith@limestone.edu, or call 864-488-4611 for further information.

On Campus Services

IT has updated the method for student printing on campus. The policy is as follows:

1. You must be logged in to your Limestone account to print.

2. Each week, your account balance is set to allow 200 black and white pages or 20 color pages before the balance runs out.

3. Your leftover pages will not carry over to the next week.

If you have any questions regarding printing in the library, ask a library staff member.

Study Hall
In order to receive credit for study hall hours in the library, you must have your sheet signed both when you arrive and when you leave the library. The library has blank study hall sheets available at the front desk.

New Water Cooler and Bottle Re-filler
The library now has a water cooler located near the front entrance for student use. Students may use provided cups or fill their own water bottles with cold water as much as they like.

Laptop Bar and New Furniture
There is now a designated laptop bar on the first floor, located near the periodicals on the back wall. The laptop bar has two charging stations built into the table for easy use of the library’s laptops.

There is also new lounge furniture near the laptop bar, providing an alternative, more relaxed space for studying.

Need a book we don't have?
You can request books from libraries across the state through PASCAL Delivers.

Visit PASCALCat.org, search for your book, then click “Request Item for delivery.” Follow the instructions and pick up your book from the front desk when it arrives!
